John D. Logan to Take Up
Matters With Pres. Martin.

MOBILE, Ala., May 15. (Sp.)—President John D. Logan, of the Mobile club, left the city today for Memphis to confer with President Martin, of the Southern association, relative to general conditions. He will take up with the president a better system of umpiring and the compelling of the indicator handlers to announce to the bleachers at all times the batteries of the game.

Manager Bob Coleman, of the Mobile club, has been granted full charge of the playing end of the club relative to deals for players. The deals for players were heretofore transacted by Secretary C. S. Colson, who has resigned.

Jim Therpe is playing in his usual luck. He adorns the bench until the last inning or so and when he does burst into the game is so anxious to knock the cover off the ball that he fizzes.

The Providence club announces that Eddie Evers will again make his team in the Eastern league. Providence, however, is not decided where it will play its games, as there is a dispute over lease of the park used last year, and which is owned by President Navin, of the Detroit club. Jack Egan will have charge of the business end of Providence baseball affairs this year.

It was only four years ago that the Phillies, managed by Pat Moran, started out to win their first National league pennant. What has become of the members of that victorious team? Whitted, Cravath, Bancroft, Luderus and Adams still are wearing Philadelphia uniforms. Alexander, Killefer and Paskert are with the Chicago Cubs. Eppa Rixey, the big southpaw, has decided to remain in the navy. Demaree is a member of the Braves and Stock is playing with the Cardinals. Niekirk is a minor league manager and Mayer is one of the Pirates' boxmen. Chalmers, McQuillan and Eddie Burns have retired from the game. Tincup, Baumgartner, Byrne, Becker, Weiser and Duguey have dropped into the smaller circuits. Moran, who is managing the Cincinnati Reds, has been succeeded by Jack Coombs. How long will it be before the Phillies capture another pennant?

When Hank Gowdy took the plate for the first time at Braves field he will be the central figure of a demonstration that probably will outdo anything else in the testimonial line to a ball player. A Boston paper is carrying on a subscription in order to let the fans show Gowdy how strong a place he has in their affections, and already a good sized amount has been subscribed. No decision has yet been reached as to the present which will be purchased for Gowdy, but he is to get a memento that always will remind him of the fact that his rush to join the colors ahead of any other ball player was not overlooked by the fans. The first day he appears at Braves field will probably be designated as Gowdy day.

Jim Vaughn, the Cubs' big pitcher, wishes that all the other National league clubs were as easy for him as are the Pirates. The great southpaw has faced the Pirates 25 times in his six campaigns in the senior major league circuit and has won 22 of these games. He joined the Cubs in the fall of 1913, but did not work in a game against the Pirates that year. In 1914 he turned the Smoky City outfit back five times in six starts, and in 1915 won three out of four against the Pittsburgh crew. In 1916 he was charged with losing two games to the Pirates, though he entered both of these games in the closing innings, going to the relief of a teammate. He beat them five times in a row in 1917 and five times out of six in 1918 and came out on the long end of a meeting with the Pirates in the opening game of the present season. Seven of the 22 victories Vaughn has hung up at the expense of the Pirates have been shutouts, and he has allowed them an average of only six hits per game.

Earl Cooper, demon Stutz racing driver, and G. P. Stephenson, late A. A. contest board representative, have gone into the airplane business, and if you have a landing place in your back yard, a desire to get up and look down on your fellow men, and 2,500 bucks in your bank pocket, they will be able to supply you with all the necessary equipment within the next few weeks. Within the last few days Cooper and Stephenson have completed a deal whereby they have become owners of 20 Curtiss two-seated training planes used by the Canadian government in training their aviators for the late argument in Europe.

CARDS GET LAVAN.

BOSTON, May 15.—Manager Branch Rickey, of the St. Louis National league club, announced last night that he had bought John Lavan, an infielder, from the Washington club of the American league. Lavan, who has been in service, will join the Cardinals in St. Louis on May 20.

COX A-TRAVELER.

MOBILE, Ala., May 15.—Monte Cox, a former Carolina league player, has been signed by the Little Rock club, according to announcement made here today by Manager Eberfeld Cox, who is an outfielder and first baseman, will play the former position and join the club at New Orleans.

Young Men Back From Service Will Want All the Style They Can Get

YOUNG men have done the big things. They have been face to face with stern reality. They are surer of themselves than ever before.

Before-the-war
Models are Passé

Allofwhich, translated to Clothes, means that old standards will not do. Why, the very physique of Young America has been changed by the war. The old "models" are passé.

The HOUSE OF KUPPENHEIMER through its vast experience in service uniforms had a chance to study the changes, at first-hand. New models have been created to meet the new conditions.

And styles, too. For Spring you will find bold, virile lines; expressing a feeling of confidence, of "get there" without being noisy or flashy.

There's just one thing old about the HOUSE OF KUPPENHEIMER and that's the fundamental policy of the business:

To set a price Value Through based on the Volume
cost of material and labor with a small profit on an enormous turnover; and to see to it that the right kind of fabrics and the right kind of tailoring go into every garment.

That Young America appreciates this fair dealing is shown by the fact that the business of this house has doubled in the last four years.

So, both in style and value, your Kuppenheimer dealer is waiting to serve you—to express for you in clothes the feeling of hope and the strength of youth that is in you.

Men who are real particular as to correct style will be wearing the Bellevue model this season. It is one of the leaders in Emerson styles.

THE wearing quality and actual retail value of Emerson Shoes are guaranteed to you because we brand our trade mark and the price, based on net factory costs, on the soles of every pair in the process of manufacture. It will pay you to look in our windows and see what a wide variety of smart models we are showing.

"If a better shoe than the Emerson could be made at the price, I would wear it myself and expect every one else to do likewise."
